Nestled in the gated enclave community of “The Bluffs”, this free-standing, detached home highlights beautiful westerly views of the Puget Sound. Cathedral ceilings and expansive windows bathe the interior in natural light, accentuating the brick fireplace that anchors the living room. The main floor primary suite offers a sanctuary with private bath and walk-in closet, complemented by direct access to a generous deck that spans the home’s length. Versatile lower-level with a spacious bonus room featuring a cozy gas fireplace, wet bar, and access to a covered patio, plus extra storage in the oversized utility room. The added convenience of an HOA ensures the beauty of its surroundings through meticulous landscaping and exterior upkeep.
